

KUDOS TO ORGANISERS FOR THEIR PAINSTAKING EFFORTS

“It is very difficult to find common interests amongst all the participants. I think organisers had an Herculean task before them. I respect their efforts in minutely planning the whole thing. Kudos to all of them. Managing and executing a fulltime program.

I had only one suggestion. Please consider our age and diverse interests and keep lots of time in between events to relax and pursue more one to one interactions.”
